- "About 400 prisoners, all of them inhabitants of the Carpatho-Ukraine, were transported from the MVD interrogation prison at Mukachevo by rail in the direction of Russia proper during the first half of October 1952. They were sent in groups of 80 to 100 persons, each transport consisting of two to three freight cars. The transports were routed from Kukachevo to Khust, where they were taken over by rail. way brigades from Cernauti (Chernovtsy).
- "From the town of Khust (Huszt) over 4,000 prisoners were sent luring the second 2. half of October 1952 in the direction of Lyov and also Cernauti, and then, wost probably to Russia proper. This group of prisoners consisted of over 3,000 local people who had been working as prison laborers in various Lespromitos (for a kolkhozes), and of about 1,000 Czechs, Rumanians and I les who had been caught in illegal border crossings.
- "Despite those large-scale deportations of prisoners from the Carpathi-Ukrahme, a large number still remain in prisons or forced labor campe in the region. In October, 1952, three large forced labor campe for political willoners were in operation in the region of Mukashevo and on the northern slopes of the Carpethian Mountains, in Dolina. The inmates of these three camps are employed in felling trees and doing other forestry work. Since 1 October 1952, four or rive other Lagrunkts' (forced labor camps) have been organized. The immates are employed in road construction and railroad repair."
